The Airport Corridor Transportation Association (ACTA) is a non-profit transportation management association (TMA) that promotes transportation improvements in one of Southwestern Pennsylvania's highest-growth areas.

We work to improve air quality, reduce congestion, promote alternative transportation choices, increase access and mobility and bring innovative transportation solutions to Pittsburgh's Airport Corridor.

Founded in 1990, our members include area businesses, local governments, educational institutions and developers who care about getting around efficiently and safely in the Airport Corridor.

ADVOCACY

ACTA advocates for our region to Allegheny County, Harrisburg and Washington, DC by identifying, promoting and managing traffic projects that improve transportation operations and infrastructure. A recent success of our advocacy efforts — securing dedicated annual funding for RideACTA in the state Transportation Bill (Act 89). And, our members have the power to influence real transportation issues through public events, meetings and a seat on our Board of Directors.

As an ACTA member you also will have the opportunity to attend ACTA events and interact with transportation stakeholders in the region including: PennDOT, Port Authority of Allegheny County, Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission, Beaver County Transit Authority and Airport Corridor municipalities.

INNOVATION

Our research and innovation produces new knowledge about mobility issues and offers practical solutions that drive, proactive, replicable improvements.

Major ACTA studies including Commuting in the Corridor, Moving Around Within a Suburban Commercial Area and Re-Thinking the Suburban Bus Stop documented innovative, practical, transportation ideas that led to transportation improvements in the Airport Corridor.

These improvements include: the construction of the Super Stop at IKEA which includes the suburbs first bike workstation, the re-timing of traffic signals in the Robinson/North Fayette commercial area, the addition of a signalized intersection on Park Manor Boulevard at IKEA, shared bike lanes from the Montour Trail to the Super Stop at IKEA and new pedestrian crosswalks on Park Manor Boulevard.

We're a trusted source for the most current local traffic advisories and construction information.

As an ACTA member you will receive the latest construction advisory e-mails right at your desk. You can also access timely information on specific construction projects in the region through our public outreach program.

We also use our knowledge to educate our members on mobility choices available in the Airport Corridor through innovative programs like our on-road bike map (a first in the Pittsburgh suburbs) and accompanying smart phone app as well as WalkPittsburgh.org, an initiative ACTA launched with Pittsburgh's two other TMAs.
